

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 24th, 2006

HEADLINE:

Boston takes Inaugural Ultimate Showcase Championship

South Boston, MA

On a cloudy afternoon in front of 300+ fans at Saunders Stadium, Boston defeated Cambridge 17-13. Legendary throwing star Nathan Wicks surprised Cambridge by catching 3 goals and making a block. He also threw 3 goals. Giora Proskurowski shredded the Cambridge defense with 2 hucks, 4 goals thrown, and no turnovers. Sam Rosenthal and Jaspas Hoitsma combined for 36 completions and no turnovers. Boston featured a balanced offense with 11 players throwing 10+ passes during the game.

Cambridge fell behind early 6-3, rallied to close within 8-7, before Boston took 5 straight points to open up a 13-7 lead. Teddy Brower-Jaros and Matt Holzer led a Cambridge rally to get within 16-13 before Boston closed the game out. Josh Mullen had 3 blocks and caught 3 goals for Cambridge. Jeff Brown also caught three Cambridge goals.

Alex Bowman led the Boston defensive efforts with two blocks. Each team had 6 blocks. The difference in the game was Cambridge's 8 unforced turnovers compared with four by Boston.

Post game comments from the players and fans were very positive. Fans stuck around to collect autographs after the game. Several local newspapers sent reporters to cover the game. The press commented on the spirit of the game and how it would be a great role-model sport for youth.

Of note, the game had one pick call and no travel or foul calls.

Many thanks to all of the volunteers who made this event a success.

PHOTO CREDITS: © 2006 Keegan Uhl (top), © 2006 Marshall Goff (bottom).

TheUltimateShowcase.com

Contacts for The Ultimate Showcase:

Mark Goodman, 617-504-1473
MarkGoodman@iHuck.com

Erik Sebesta, 617-577-7131
Erik@iHuck.com